

Human Resources Articles for Business Leaders

Guiding Employers to Employee Excellence

California's New Workplace Smoking Rules

Recent legislation has been that will change some of the rules relating to smoking in the workplace became effective June 9, 2016.

Governor Brown signed a package of bills relating to smoking.

The new legislation:

- Treat the use of e-cigarettes and vaping devices that contain nicotine as "smoking" thus extending existing smoking bans to cover such products.
- Expand smoke-free workplace protections by getting rid of most of the existing exemptions that permitted smoking in certain work environments, such as bars, hotel lobbies, warehouse facilities and employer-designated smoking break rooms.
- Expand the workplace smoking ban to include owner-operated businesses.
- Raise the minimum smoking age from 18 to 21, except for active military personnel.

Lauren Sims is the author and a principal HR Consultant with eqHR Solutions.

When you require HR advice or help navigating the ever-changing landscape of California and Federal Employment Laws and Regulations, call us for a no obligation consultation.

eqHR Solutions is a leading human resources consulting firm providing tactical and strategic human resources support, plus ADP payroll product training, for all size businesses in Southern California and the San Francisco / Bay area.